

THE ANTI-DISCRIMINATION TRIBUNAL QUEENSLAND

PRACTICE DIRECTION NO 6

Unless otherwise ordered:-

1. If the complainant intends to rely on any medical reports at the hearing of their complaint, then such reports shall be filed in the Tribunal Registry and served on the respondent(s) at the same time as the complainant's points of claim.
2. If the respondent wishes the complainant to be examined by an independent medical practitioner then:-
 - the respondent within ten (10) days of service of the medical reports shall serve on the complainant a list of medical experts including 3 in each area of expertise of the complainant's medical witnesses;
 - the complainant within ten (10) days of receipt of the list shall inform the respondent of which one in each list of medical witnesses he/she will be examined by;
 - the respondent is to arrange for the medical examination of the complainant and for a report at its own cost;
 - the complainant is to facilitate the examination by the expert;
 - the respondent must file any medical reports on which it intends to rely prior to the conciliation conference; or if no conciliation conference has been ordered, at the same time as their witness statements;
 - the respondent shall provide a copy to the complainant of all and any reports obtained as a result of such examination, including any drafts.

Effective this 17 day of June, 2002.

.....
W Sofronoff QC
President
Anti-Discrimination Tribunal Queensland